Paine's Complete Works.

THE STUDENTS ILLUSTRATED EDITION.

Paine's Religious and Theological Works. (1 vol.) Paine's Political and Miscellaneous Works. (1 vol.) Paine's Political Works. (complete in 2 vols.) Paine's Life. By the editor of The National, and by Thomas Clio Rickman; with Lord Erskine's speech in behalf of Paine, Court of King's Bench, London, Eng., Dec. 18, 1793 (1 vol.) This beautiful edition, 5 vols. $5.00. Forming together, Five Handsome, Crown 8vo, gold titles, illustrated, and sold at $100 for the entire set. As is well known Paine's political and religious writings exerted an immense influence in America, England and France during his life, and since his death that beneficent influence has increased and extended throughout the civilized world. A copy of this illustrated edition of his works (which for elegance, accuracy and completeness is not excelled, if equalled, by editions sold at twice the price) should be in the library of every patriot—of every lover of Truth, Justice and Liberty.

POPULAR EDITIONS OF PAINE'S WORKS.

Common Sense. A Revolutionary pamphlet addressed to the inhabitants of America in 1776, with an explanatory notice by an English author. Paine's first and most important political work. Paper, 15c.

The Crisis. 16 numbers. Written during the darkest hours of the American Revolution "in the times that tried men's souls." Paper, 25c; cloth, 50c.

The Rights of Man. Being an answer to Burke's attack upon the French Revolution. A work almost without a peer. Paper, 25c; cloth, 50c.

The Age of Reason. Being an investigation of True and Fabulous Theology. A new and unabridged edition. For nearly one hundred years the clergy have been vainly trying to answer this book. Paper, 25c; cloth, 50c.

Paine's Religious and Theological Works COMPLETE. In one volume post 8vo, 432 pp., paper 50c; cloth, gilt top, $1.00.

Paine's Principal Political Works. Containing Common Sense; The Crisis, (16 numbers), Letter to the Abbe Raynal; Letter from Thomas Paine to General Washington; Letters from General Washington to Thomas Paine; Rights of Man, Parts I and II; Letter to the Abbe Sieyès. With portrait and illustrations. In one volume, 652 pp., paper, 50c; cloth, gilt top, $1.00.

Paine's Works.—Continued.

Paine's Political Works COMPLETE. In two vols., containing over 500 pp. each, post 8vo, cloth, gilt top, with portrait and illustrations. $1 per volume.

Paine's Poetical and Miscellaneous Works COMPLETE. One vol., brown silk cloth, gilt top, $1.00.

Complete Life of Paine. By W. Linton, editor of the National, and Thomas Clio Rickman. Superb illustrations. One volume, brown silk cloth, gilt top, $1.00.

Life of Thomas Paine. By the editor of the National, with Pictorial and Notes by Peter Eckler. Illustrated with views of the Old Paine Homestead and Paine Monument at New Rochelle; also, portraits of the most prominent of Paine's friends in Europe and America. As "a man is known by the company he keeps," these portraits of Paine's associates are in themselves a sufficient refutation of the wicked libels against Paine that have so long disgraced sectarian literature. Crown 8vo, Paper, 50c; cloth, 75c.

Voltaire (M. de) Works.

—Voltaire's Romances. A New Edition, Profusely Illustrated. Contents: The White Bull; A Satirical Romance, Zadig, or Fate; an Oriental History. The Sage and the Atheist. The Princess of Babylon. How the Princess Amasia meets a Half; How She had a Secret Conversation with a Beautiful Serpent. The Seven Years proclaimed by Daniel are accomplished. Nebuchadnezzar punishes the Human Form. Marries the Beautiful Amasia, by Voltaire. Paper, 25c.

—Napoleon. Memoirs of the Life, Exile, and Conversations of the Emperor Napoleon, by the Count de Las Cases. With eight steel portraits, maps and illustrations. Four vols., post 8vo, each 400 pp., cloth, $5.00; half calf extra, $10.00.

—Napoleon in Exile; or A Voice FROM ST. HELENA. Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon on the Most Important Events in Life and Government, in his own words. By Barry E. O'Meara, his late Surgeon. Portrait of Napoleon, after Delarache, and a view of St. Helena, both on steel. 2 vols., post 8vo, 662 pp., cloth, $5.00; in half calf extra, $5.00.

—Mr. O'Meara's work contains a body of the most interesting and valuable information—information, the accuracy of which stands unimpaired by any attacks made against its authors. The details in Las Cases' work and those of Mr. O'Meara mutually support each other.

—Goodloe's Birth of the Republic. Compiled from the National and Colonial Histories and Historical Collections, from the American Archives, from Memoirs and from the Journals and Proceedings of the British Parliament. Containing the Resolutions, Declarations and Addresses adopted by the Continental Congress, the Provincial Congresses, Conventions and Assemblies, of the County and Town Meetings, and the Committees of Safety, in all the Colonies, from the year 1765 to 1779, to which is added the Articles of Confederation, a history of the formation and adoption of the Constitution, the election of President Washington, his Inauguration, April 30, 1789, a copy of the Constitution, and Washington's Inaugural Speech. 12mo, 400 pp., cloth, $1.00.

—Origin of Species. by Means of Natural Selection, or the Preservation of a Favored Race in the Struggle for Life. By Charles Darwin. Gilt top, cloth, 75c.

—This book is the greatest achievement of modern scientific research. It has passed through many editions in English, has been translated into almost all the languages of Europe, and has been the subject of more reviews, pamphlets and separate books than any other volume of the age. Most of the great scientific now fully support Darwin's position. The thought of this book has become a part of the common inheritance of the race.

—Rochefoucauld's Moral Maxims. Containing 141 Maxims and Moral Sentences, by Francis, Duke of Rochefoucauld; together with 144 Maxims and Reflections by Stanislaus, King of Poland. Also Maxims to live by, and Traits of Moral Courage in every-day life. 12mo, 186 pages, cloth, 75c.

—As Rochefoucauld's maxims drew from Nature,—I believe them true. They argue no corrupted mind. In him—the fault is in mankind!—Swift.

Life of Jesus.

By ERNEST RENAN with many valuable illustrations. 400 pp., crown 8vo, paper, 50 cents; cloth, gilt top, 75 cents.

Although educated as a Catholic priest, Renan, from study and observation, became a philosopher.

From his religious training he had learned to admire and respect the character and teaching of Jesus of Nazareth, but his good sense and reason led him to disbelieve in the supernatural origin of the "Son of Mary." His reasons for this disbelief—this want of faith—are as follows, and are given in his own words:

"None of the miracles which the old historians are filled with place under scientific conditions. Observations which have never once been falsified, teaches us that miracles never happen but in times and countries in which they are believed, and before physicians disposed to believe them. No miracle ever occurred in the presence of men capable of testing the miraculous character. Neither common people nor men of the world are able to do this. It requires great precautions and long habits of scientific research. In our days, we have not seen almost all respectable people dupes of the grossest frauds or of poetic illusions? 'Miraculous facts, attested by the whole population of small towns, have, thanks to a severe scrutiny, been exploded. If it is proved that no contemporary miracle will bear scrutiny, it is not probable that the miracles of the past, which have all been performed in popular gatherings, would equally present their share of illusion, if it were possible to criticize them in detail!'"

History of Christianity. Comprising all that relates to the Christian religion in The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, and also, a Vindication (never before published in this country) of "some passages in the fifteenth and sixteenth chapters," by Edward Gibbon, Esq. With a Preface, Life, of the Author, and Notes by Peter Eckler; also, Variorum Notes by Guizot, Wenck, Millman, "An English Churchman," and other scholars. This important work contains Gibbon's complete Theological writings, separate from his historical and miscellaneous works, showing where, when, and how Christianity originated; who were its founders; and what were the sentiments, character, manners, numbers and condition of the primitive Christians. "A handy and beautiful edition of the works of the Spanish masters of romance. We may say of this edition of the immortal work of Cervantes that it is most tastefully and admirably executed, and that it is embellished with a series of striking etchings from the pen of the Spanish artist de Los Rios.—Daily Telegraph."

Hypatia. By Charles Kingsley, gilt top, cloth, 75c.

Man in the Past, Present

AND FUTURE. By Prof. Ludwig Buchner. It describes Man as "a being not put upon the earth accidentally by an arbitrary act, but produced in harmony with the earth's nature, and belonging to it as do the flowers and fruits to the tree which bears them." Cloth, $1.00.

Mahomet, the Illustrious. By Godfrey Higgins, Esq. Perhaps no author has appeared who was better qualified for writing an honest Life of Mahomet—The Illustrious, than Godfrey Higgins, Esq. Author of the present work. His knowledge of the Oriental languages, his careful and methodical examination of all known authorities—his evident desire to state the exact truth, joined to the judicial character of his mind, eminently fitted him for the task, and he has produced a work that will prove of interest to both Mahometans and Christians. Preface by Peter Eckler. Crown 8vo, paper, 25c; cloth, 50c.

Mahomet: His Birth, Character and Doctrine. By Edward Gibbon, Esq. Gibbon's account of the Arabian legislator and prophet, is conceded to be historically correct in every particular, and so grand and perfect in every detail as to be practically beyond the reach of adverse criticism. Crown 8vo, paper, 25c; cloth, 50c.

Warden Coffin for the May Collins Memorial.

Columbus, O., Jan. 25, '00.

Mr. Charles C. Moore:

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your favor of the 20th inst saying that you may have a grand demonstration at Lexington on the first day of next May anniversary of the birth of your wonderful Kentucky girl, May L. Collins, and requesting me to be present and make a short address. I can assure you that nothing would afford me more pleasure than to comply with your request in this matter, provided circumstances will admit of me doing so. I infer from what you say that it is not definitely settled as to whether this will occur or not. When it is written and I will let you know if I can attend or not.

Yours,
E. G. COFFIN.

In answer to this I will here say that the May Collins Memorial will be conducted, as heretofore, in Lexington, and I want all friends and admirers of this most wonderful of all intellects that America ever produced, or that has lived since Bishop Cyril's Christian fanatics burnt Hypatia in the streets of Alexandria in Egypt, to begin now to make more extensive preparations for the memorial that we have have ever had.

May L. Collins ought to live in history when McKinley and Bradley and Hanna and Taylor are dead and at the devil and forgotten for a thousand years.

Yes, Warden Coffin will be there and I am going to introduce him in my prison uniform, because I know my stripes will make him feel more at home.

I want him to speak partly at least upon the connection between liquor and crime. I believe that a thousand people will come specially to see and hear Warden Coffin.

The public is invited, except Rucker, Thompson and Bundy and white preachers and priests of Lexington.

P. S.—The above was written before the foul assassination of Gov. Goebel.

Lewisport, Ky., Jan. 26, '00.

Mr. C. C. Moore:

Dear Sir and Bro.—I enclose a clipping from the Louisville Evening Post, that I think gives authoritative evidence in the case now under discussion in the BLADE, namely, the weakening of church influence.

I was glad to hear your views on the financial question. I now agree with you fully on every position taken by the BLADE. The BLADE is cutting a wide swath in morals and religion—the latter being mere superstition—and is liberating the minds of men.

Yours for the discussion of all subjects.

H. G. SMITH.

The article headed "Decay of Religion in New England," by Frank W. Rollins, Governor of New Hampshire, and will be printed in full in the BLADE.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2, '00.

Dear Mr. Moore:

I send, today, P. O. order for $4.00 to pay for two copies of "Behind the Bars," and one year renewal for the BLADE.

I am extremely glad that it is widening its swath.

Yours for truth,

FRANK BURNS, Ph. D., Geologist.

When you read the book you will see how Geology had to do with my becoming a heathen.

Any man who is onto geology can't believe Mosey's little fairy tales and the "rib story," as old Bro. Bob Ingersoll called it.

I have a stone fence in front of my house built of animals that lived 1,000,000 years ago.

A fellow with D. D. after his name don't believe that, but a Ph. D. does. Still the celestial real estate dealers say "there is no conflict between science and religion."

The Ohio Liberal Society

Meets in G. A. R. Hall, 35 West Sixth St., Cincinnati, O., every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Following is the program for February:

February 4.—Joseph A. Labadie. Subject—"Philosophical Anarchism."

February 11.—Ex-Rev. J. J. Logan. Subject—"The Orthodox Church; its Hypocrisy and Cowardice."

February 18.—M. C. O'Byrne. Subject—"The Doom of the Bible."

February 25.—M. C. O'Byrne. Subject—"The Immorality of the Soul, Will it Stand the Test of Reason?"

All lectures are followed by free criticism and discussion. Questions invited. Admission, ten cents, to cover expenses.

MRS. HENRY AND DR. WILSON

The articles of Mrs. Henry and Dr. Wilson in the last BLADE are even above their own standards and are the best ever written in America.

THE BLADE

AND THE NEW YORK WORLD.

For $1.65 a Year. The World Coming Every Other Day, Except

Sunday, and the Blade for Sabbath Reading.

The Blade the Greatest Religious

Paper in the World, and the World the Greatest Secular Paper in the World.

The BLUE GRASS BLADE, the greatest Religious Journal in the world, and the New York World, the greatest Secular Journal in the world have gone into a combine and will pool their earnings.

The World will come three times a week, that is every other day except Sunday, when the BLADE, punctually each Sabbath morn, laden to the guards with the latest and freshest from the religious world, will appear and fill what would otherwise be an "aching void" in the hearts of the piously inclined.

It would be a reflection upon the general intelligence of the world at large, and of America especially, to descend upon the merits of these two great journals. Not to know them is to proclaim yourself unknown.

With the BLADE no other religious reading is necessary; not even the Bible, prayer book or hymn book. Having the BLADE it is not necessary to pay any pew rent, or to entertain preachers, or to chip into the missionary box, and your breeches are not bagged at the knees by kneeling in churches.

Having the New York World three times a week, you are "thoroughly furnished into every good work" (II. Tim. 3: 17) in matters secular, and nothing else in secular journalism, is necessary for cultivated ladies and gentlemen.

If you are taking the BLADE send me $1.65 and your BLADE will be credited up a year, and the World will begin at once to come to you three times a week. If you are not taking the BLADE, send me $1.65 and the two papers will at once start to you.

This is the greatest offer for religious and political literature you ever saw.

Is Mr. W. T. Ficklen, aged 71

member of the Christian church for 50 years, when that church put him and me in jail because we were Prohibitionists. Bro. Ficklen is also agent for the "Rational View."

Price 50 cents; neatly bound.

The BLADE is now agent for Peter Eckler, New York, the greatest infidel book publisher in the world, and would be glad to have your patronage if you want Freethought literature. See ad on page 4.
